Endoscopy Mouth Guard

The Endoscopy Mouth Guard, manufactured by Novin Sazan Salamat Pasargad, is a disposable medical device used during upper endoscopy (esophagus or stomach). It is placed inside the patient's mouth to protect the teeth, the endoscope tube, and the oral cavity.

MECHANISM OF ACTION

- Protects the Endoscope Tube: Prevents biting or mechanical damage to the device.
- Protects the Patient's Mouth and Teeth: Prevents injury to the teeth, tongue, and lips during scope insertion.
- Device Stabilization: Facilitates smoother insertion and helps keep the endoscope in a stable position without sudden movements.

Instructions for Use:

- Prepare the patient and explain the steps (if conscious).
- Open the sterile package and inspect the guard for damage.
- Carefully place the guard into the patient's mouth, ensuring the central hole aligns with the throat.
- Secure the guard using the strap if needed.
- Insert the endoscope through the central hole and begin the procedure.
- After the procedure, dispose of the guard safely as medical waste.

Key Features

- Disposable
- ISO 13485 certified
- Sterilized with ethylene oxide gas
- Includes spike, tube, connector, and 2 caps
- Approved by the Ministry of Health, Treatment, and Medical Education.
